

ÁLVARO CUERVO GARCÍA

CUNEF (Financial Studies School at Complutense University)

Leonardo Prieto Castro, 2 – 28042 Madrid Spain

Tel.: 34 91 448 08 92

acuervo@cunef.edu

1. Academic Titles and Merits

- Ph.D. in Economics. University of Madrid, 1971.
- Awarded Rey Jaime 1 Prize in Economics, 1992, for contributions to business economics.
- Awarded Infanta Cristina Prize in Economics, 1999, for research and teaching in business administration.
- Awarded Doctor Honoris Causa (Honorary Doctorate). University of Oviedo, 1994, University of Leon, 2001, University of Castilla-La Mancha, 2006, University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria (2008), University of Salamanca (2008) and University Rey Juan Carlos (2014).

2. Teaching and Academic Positions

- Current position: Professor Emeritus of Business Economics, Complutense University of Madrid. Dean of Financial Studies School at Complutense University (CUNEF).

3. Research

- Research and professional activities are centred in three areas: 1) Business Administration and Strategic Management, 2) State-Owned Enterprises and Privatisation and 3) Finance.
- Has published several books on all three subjects: “The Spanish Financial System”, 25th edition 2014; “The Public Enterprise”, 1983; “Bank Crisis” 1988; “Business Administration” (director) 9th Edition, 2013; “Analysis and Financial Planning of the Firm”, 1994; “The Privatisation of the State Owned Firm”, 1997. “Entrepreneurship, Concepts, Theory and Perspectives”, 2007. Has also published numerous articles in national and foreign reviews and journals.

4. Professional Activities

Current position:

- Member of the Board of Directors Barbosa Almeida Vidro, S.A. (since 2006).
- Member of the Board of Directors Bolsas y Mercados Españoles, S.A. BME (since 2006).
- Member of the Sonae Global Advisory Board (since 2015).
- Member of the Consulting Council on Privatisation of the Spanish Government (since 1996).